SHOOTING SUSPECT ARRESTED

Hampton detectives arrested Douglas Earl Young, a 44 year old without a permanent address, for offenses related to a shooting. On Friday, February 4, 2005, Young was transported from the custody of the Dekalb County Sheriff's Office in Georgia to the Hampton City jail to await his trial.

On June 30, 2004, officers responded to the 2700 block of Butternut Drive to investigate a shooting complaint. Officers determined that Young engaged his wife's 17 year old grandson in an argument. The conflict became violent when Young produced a handgun and shot the teen once in the shoulder. Emergency medical personnel were summoned and transported the victim to a local hospital for treatment. Young fled the scene prior to police arrival.

Detectives obtained warrants charging Douglas Earl Young with maiming, use of a firearm in the commission of a felony and possession of a firearm by a convicted felon. Detectives determined that Young fled to Georgia to avoid arrest. Authorities in Dekalb County were notified and arrested him without incident.

Corporal Jimmie Wideman will receive questions about this release at 757-727-6638.
